

BERAT GÜL

BUSINESS ANALYST

ABOUT ME

Hello, I'm Berat. I began my career primarily as a frontend developer, accumulating valuable experience in this field. With my customer-centric approach and technical skills, I've contributed to the development of highlevel web applications across various projects. Additionally, I've honed my expertise in cybersecurity, networking, and Linux, making significant strides in cybersecurity by identifying vulnerabilities and crafting solutions. Currently, I'm working as a junior business analyst intern, leveraging my technical knowledge and skills to understand and improve business processes. With my project management, requirement analysis, and communication skills, I serve as an effective bridge between teams, contributing to the successful implementation of projects.

EXPERIENCE

ECODATION - BUSINESS ANALYST INTERN ISTANBUL, TURKEY

APRIL 2024 - JULY 2024

I was involved in the final stages of an online education project at ECODATION, primarily focusing on the testing processes. I conducted bug and vulnerability assessments for quality control of the software during the testing phases. Additionally, I supported the team in reporting identified issues and tracking the resolution processes. This experience has helped me enhance my analytical thinking and problem-solving skills.
